

The Galactic Empire

The Galactic Empire stretches across an entire galaxy. It comprises of billions of worlds, with many thousands harbouring native life. The capital of the Galactic Empire is Galactica Imperius in the Capital system. It was here, 40,000 years ago that the Iron Empire, based on Galacticus Imperius, started to forge their galaxy-wide empire. Of the many species the Iron Empire encountered, only about 10 made a pact with the Empire. The rest fought against them. Then, about 10 millenia ago, the aliens attacked. Entire planets were destroyed, wiped of life forever. Many of the colonies
